

Notice to all Patients

This clinic is owned and operated by AdventHealth and is considered an outpatient hospital facility. Therefore, you will be receiving a bill from AdventHealth for the facility charges and also a separate bill from the Center for Pain Management for the physician's charges.

Most insurance companies cover your charges here like any other outpatient hospital charges, and you may be subject to co-pays and deductibles.

Please be on time for your appointment. If you arrive late, you may be rescheduled for another time.

I have read and understand the above statement.
